CHASE--He Could Charm a Lady's Socks Off-- and Then All the Rest...

He was a confirmed bachelor with a taste for leggy blondes, so why did Chase Rayburn feel wildly jealous that Sloan MacKay would be dating guys who saw her personal ail bn a billboard? He'd always been close to his law partner's widow and her young son, but he'd never before wanted to kiss the petite brunette until she melted, then teach her wanton pleasure in his arms!

Sweet Revenge

Sloan was shocked at the desire that erupted when Case's comforting embrace turned suddenly combustible, but getting the man to admit he wanted her would mean a delicious seduction that provoked him to passion. Modeling slinky dresses for him alone, then asking him to double date, drove him mad and made him burn--but could she make him see that friendship had deepened into love?
